

GLOBAL CONFERENCE ► FRIDAY 25 APRIL 2008

Occupational and Environmental Cancer Prevention

University of Stirling, Scotland Email: cancerpreventionconf@stir.ac.uk

Programme

Friday 25 April 2008

Morning Session

Chair: Andrew Watterson
University of Stirling

The Problem

Occupational and Environmental Cancers

- 08.15hrs Registration and Coffee
- 09.00hrs Welcome and Introduction
- 9.10hrs Occupational and Environmental Cancer. A global view of the statistics
Dr Dick Clapp, School of Public Health, Boston University, USA
- 9.35hrs Estimating Occupational and Environmental Cancer Burdens in Australia
Dr Lin Fritschi, University of Western Australia, Australia
Dr Tim Driscoll, University of Sydney, Australia

Solutions 1

Global and General

- 9.55hrs Occupational Cancer Prevention and the WHO: the WHO Global Plan of Action on Workers Health
Dr Kim, WHO Europe Office
- 10.15hrs Cancer Exposure Databases
Dr Timo Kauppinen, Finnish Institute of Occupational Health
- 10.35hrs A UK Perspective on Occupational Cancer. What's gone wrong, why and how we can improve prevention?
Professor Rory O'Neill, Hazards/OEHRG University of Stirling
- 10.50hrs 10 minutes for questions
- 11.00hrs Break with Refreshments
- 11.30hrs The European Agency for Health and Safety at Work Perspective on Occupational Cancer.
Dr Takala, Head of European Agency for Safety and Health at Work, Bilbao, Spain
- 11.50hrs Establishing Evidence for Early Action on Preventing Cancer: implementation of the Precautionary Principle.
Dave Gee, European Environment Agency, Copenhagen, Denmark
- 12.10hrs Worker Clinics and Occupational Cancer
Simon Pickvance, SOHAS, The Sheffield UK Experience
- 12.20hrs 10 minutes for questions

GLOBAL CONFERENCE ► FRIDAY 25 APRIL 2008

Occupational and Environmental Cancer Prevention

University of Stirling, Scotland Email: cancerpreventionconf@stir.ac.uk

Provisional Programme

Friday 25 April 2008	Afternoon Session	Chair: Tommy Gorman, University of Stirling
-----------------------------	--------------------------	--

Solutions 2	NGO, Legal, Trade Union and Industry Perspectives
--------------------	--

13.30hrs Cancer prevention – what we can learn from beyond Scotland. The National Committee on Environmental & Occupational Exposures (NCEOE)(Canada) Larry Stoffman, Chair NCEOE, Director OHS UFCW. Canada

- 14.00hrs Occupational Cancer and Cancer Prevention in France
Dr Christophe Coutanceau, INSERM, France.
- The International, European and UK Trade Union View of Occupational Cancer Prevention
- 14.10hrs Fiona Murie, BWI
- 14.20hrs The European TU Perspective on occupational cancer, ETUI – REIHS, Brussels, Belgium
- 14.40hrs A UK TU perspective on occupational cancer .John Mclean, National HSO, GMB
- 14.55hrs An international Environmental NGO assessment of environmental cancers and their prevention. Dr Jennifer Sass, Natural Resources Defense Council, Washington , USA (tbc)
- 15.15hrs 10 minutes for questions
- 15.25hrs Break with Refreshments
- 15.55hrs Tried and tested solutions to occupational cancer exposure
Toxic Use Reduction: What it is and how it works
Pam Civié, Industry Research Program Manager, Toxics Use Reduction Institute, University of Massachusetts, Lowell, USA
- 16.15hrs An Industry Perspective on Toxics Reduction
Speaker TBC
- 16.35hrs Roundtable on International Occupational Cancer Campaigns with Questions.

Hugh Robertson, TUC
Steve Mullins, ACTU OHS Officer, Melbourne, Australia
Laurie Kazan-Allen, BAN, London. Campaign Analysis

17.30hrs

Close

Updated: 21 January 2008