

Organise Educate Campaign
Inspect Commemorate

April 28
Workers' Memorial Day
Safe work is a right, not a privilege

It is an unnatural disaster. Two million are killed by their jobs every year. Work-related disease and injuries kill more than wars, more than road traffic accidents. On Workers' Memorial Day, workers worldwide demand employers pay for their safety crimes. And unions commit themselves to organise for safe and healthy work.

Union safety rep:

The union protecting this workplace:

28 April event:

www.hazards.org/wmd